MARK 2:13-17

The 5 Contexts of Discipleship

Mark 2:13-17

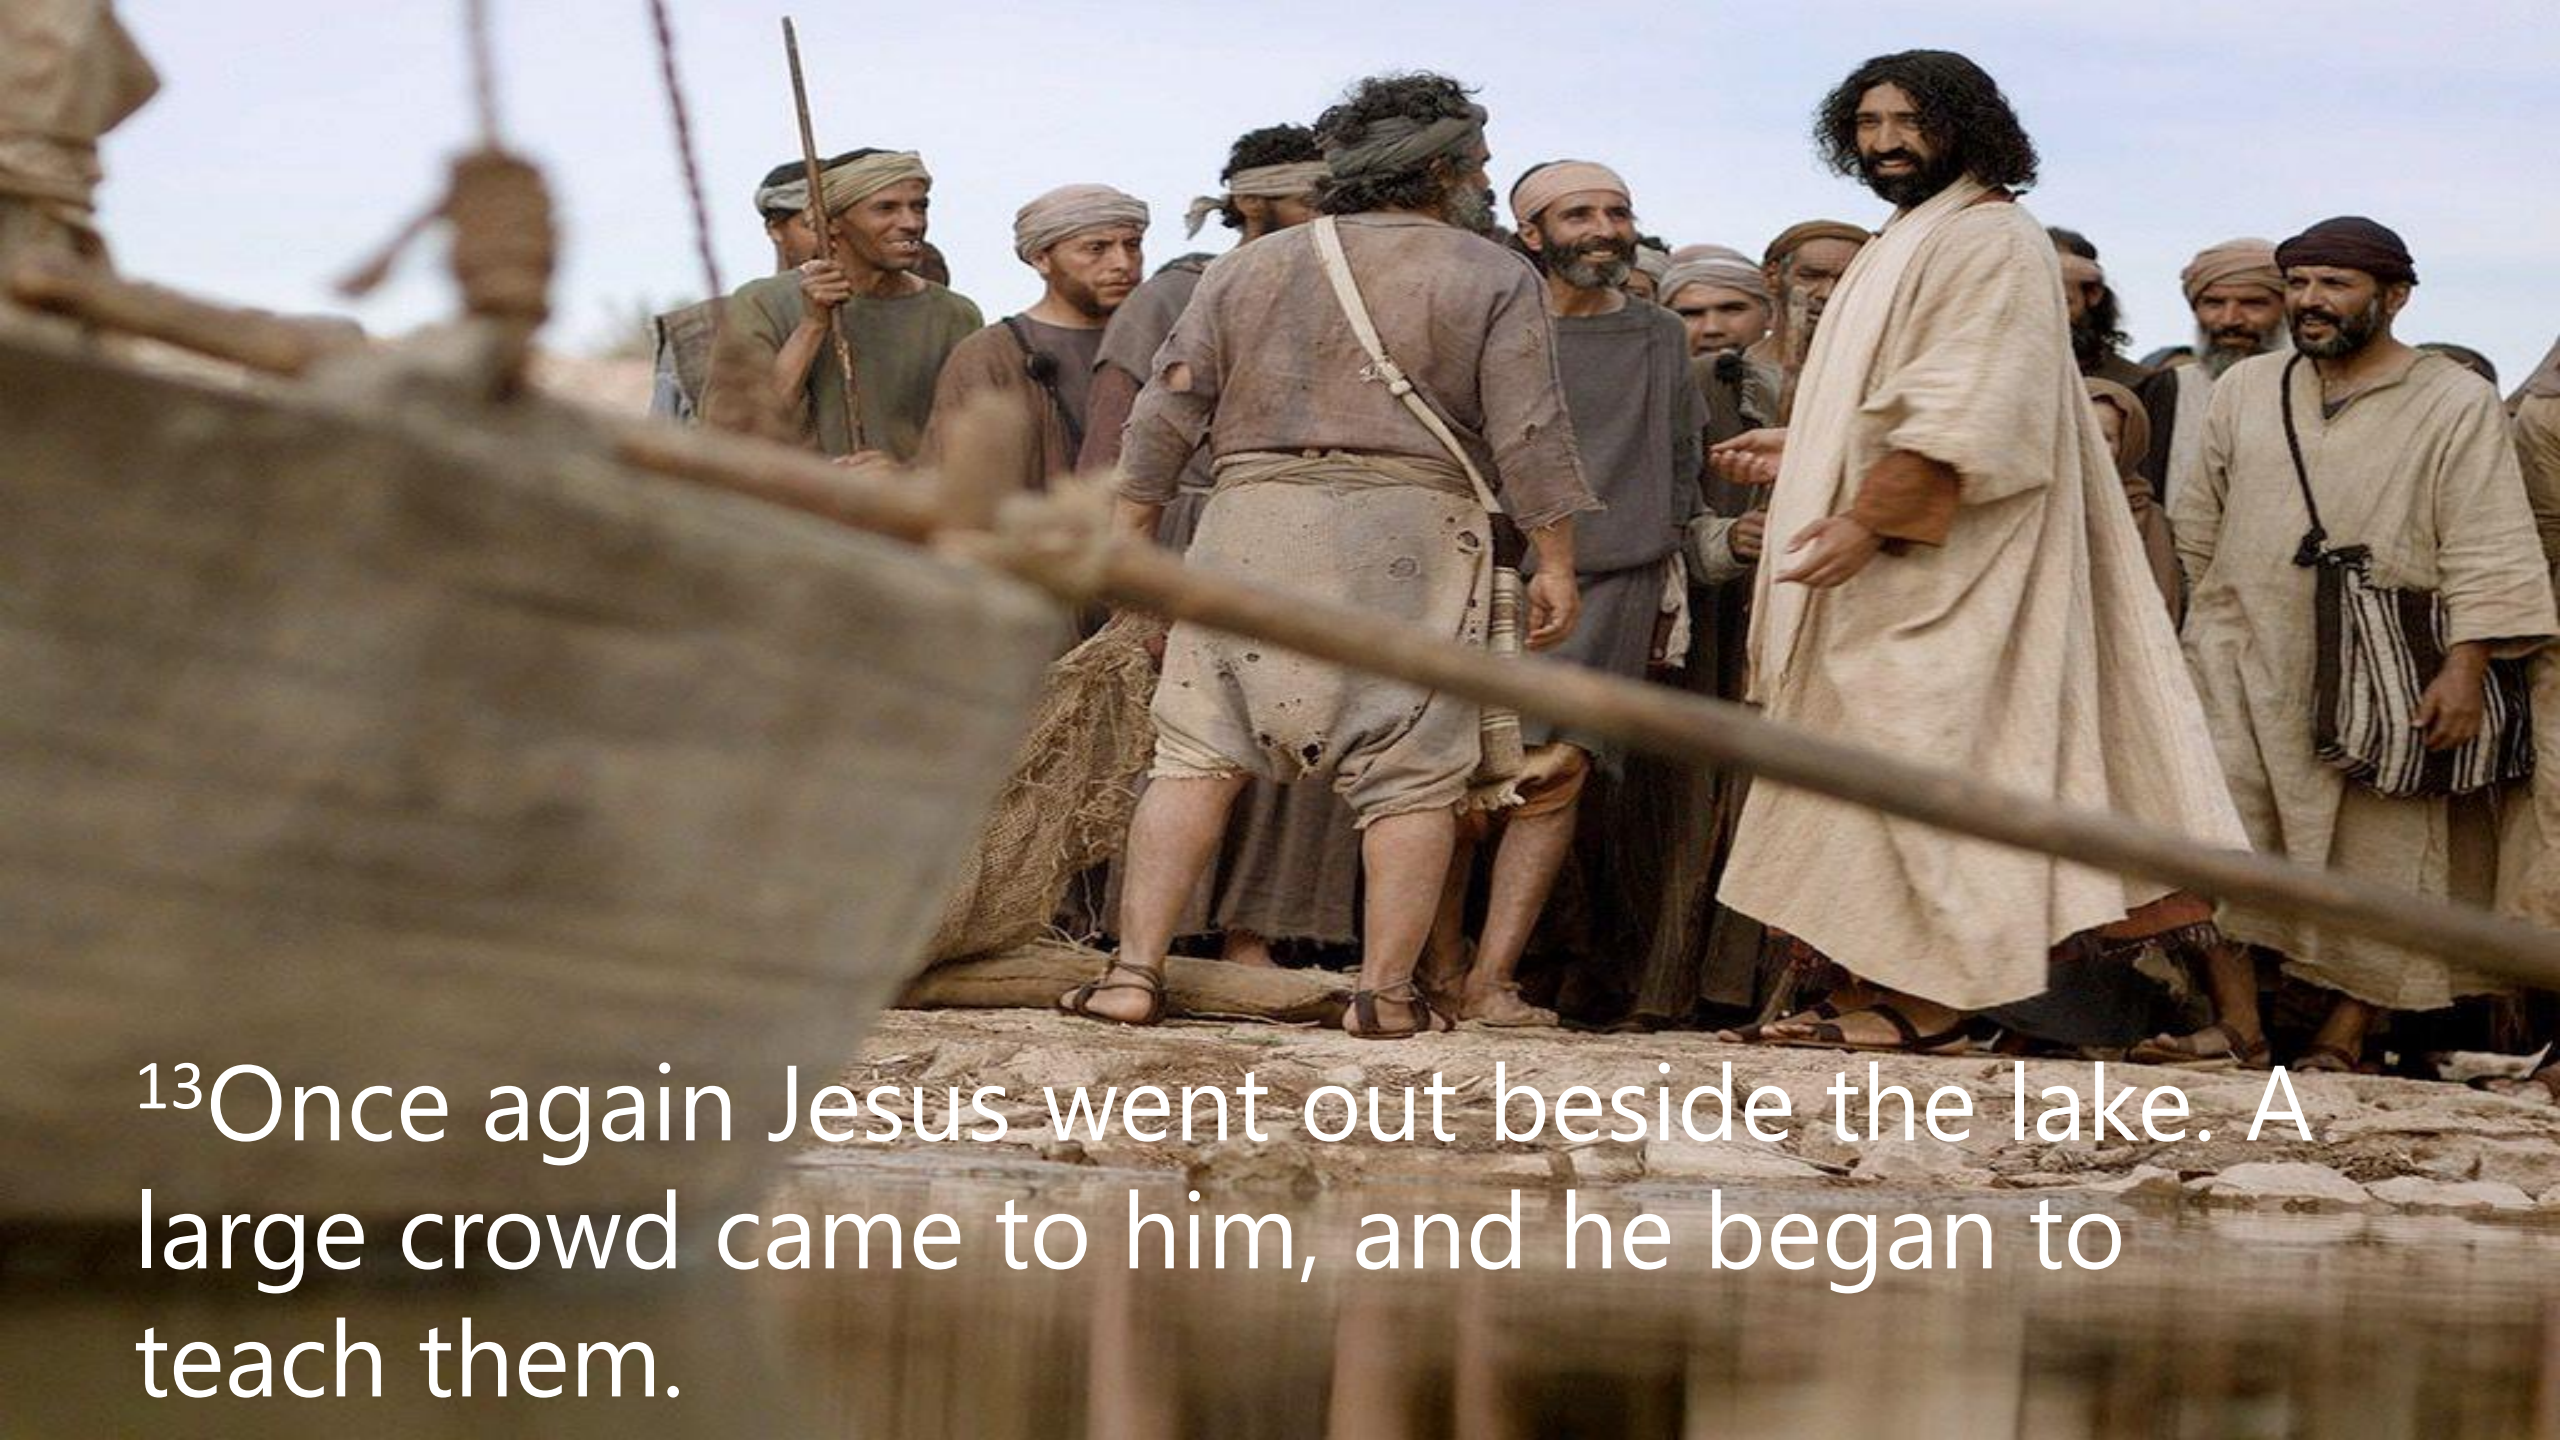

¹³Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to him, and he began to teach them. ¹⁴As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth.

"Follow me," Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵While Jesus was having dinner at Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. ¹⁶When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw him eating with the sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples: "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹⁷On hearing this, Jesus said to them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

A cinematic scene depicting Jesus, a man with long dark hair and a beard, wearing a light-colored robe, smiling as he sits at a table with several other people. The setting is a dimly lit room with a warm, golden light source from the upper right, creating a dramatic atmosphere. Jesus is reaching out towards a woman on the right. Other people, including a man with a long grey beard and a headband, are seated around the table, some holding food. The table is set with various dishes, including bread and small bowls.

Jesus:
"Friend of Sinners"

¹⁷On hearing this, Jesus said to them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."
