COLOSSIANS 1: 15-
23

The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

23

And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behaviour. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

COLOSSIANS 1: 15-
23

COLOSSIANS 1: 15-

growth & mission

We want to grow in number as people come to faith in Jesus. We believe we have a call to engage in mission locally, nationally and internationally.

We want to be a diverse community of different ages, backgrounds and ethnicities. We believe this mirrors God's heart to reach all people and nations.

diversity

community

We want to be a caring community and maintain a family atmosphere as we grow, recognising the importance of smaller gatherings to develop strong relationships.

We encourage the church to serve our communities and engage in projects that bless others in need, as part of God's heart and mission.
